

You must attend AT LEAST any two of the following 5 sessions. Each session is about 20 minutes long and are held at the Scoundrel's Corner. You can also check out the Rogues' Gallery while you're there to see what Rogues are here this weekend!! (NOTE: Times for the sessions are posted in your Locust Grove program. In addition they will be posted at the "Ewe and Coffin Society" and the 18th Century Circus area).

(1) LESSONS FROM AN IRISH CANTING CREW: Professional Sharper (Gambler) Christopher Bodkin and his Irish Toyle wife Penelope introduce you to the world and language of the Canting Crew and a look at the ups and downs of 'street hustling'. Just don't play this for money!

Witnessed as attending by: _____

(2) HAVING YOUR CAKE AND (SIN) EATING IT TOO: That old scoundrel and rat catcher Silas Moore is our resident "sin-eater" and there just happens to be a corpse that needs his services! Maggie and Ould Badger have agreed to assist him as he teaches and demonstrates the ancient and dubiously honorable art of...well...having your cake and eating it too AND getting paid for it!

(3) OUT OF THE GROUND AND SOLD AWAY: Our very own Resurrectionist, Ould Badger is recruiting employees for work in his "medical supply" business. Just a little nighttime stroll in the candlelight. And who knows, maybe you'll dig up an old friend or relative while you're out and about!!

(4) FOR THE POOR YE WILL ALWAYS HAVE WITH YOU...JOHN 8:12: Maggie the Pauper has known destitution all of her life and well knows the plight of the poor in society. But is 'knowing' enough? Come hear about the struggles for survival of the lowest classes, their jobs and the workhouses they tried to avoid.

(5) DIVINE SERVICES (SUNDAY ONLY): Come hear Parson John, our own 'Autum Bawler' (preacher) spread the Good News of Our Lord. Let's just hope he doesn't go 'spoil pudding' (preach too long and make us late for lunch!).
